Tour XIII to be Centerpiece ....from p. 1

Park, friends and neighbors will be coming together to support the efforts of the Humane Society of Alamance County in fighting this tragic situation.

On Saturday, October 15th, Tour de Tailwaggers XIII will be held during our Woofstock event to show our love and active concern for animals and families in need. Participants of all ages will bring their dogs, ranging from Toy breeds to Giant breeds, and will be raising awareness and funds to change the lives of Alamance County animals. Whether it's responding to the needs of a family needing emergency pet food assistance, giving information & referral decrease the number of animals being killed at the city shelter, rescuing an abandoned animal or one that has lost it's home due to an owner's illness, death or loss of job or home, HSAC is making a difference.

Tour de Tailwaggers funds will benefit the overall work and support the programs of the Humane Society of Alamance County -- working to help
