Thank you for seeking information about including the Humane Society of Alamance County, Inc. (HSAC) in your will. Your generous gift will enable our programs to continue and will serve the animals of this community for years to come!

The first step is to retain the services of an attorney to request that the Humane Society of Alamance County, Inc. be added as a beneficiary in your Will. If you do not have a Will, your Estate will be distributed by Probate Court according to the laws of your state. There are also other ways to make a gift to the HSAC at your death, such as trusts, annuities, remainder interests in property or life insurance. You should consult your attorney to discuss these options.

You may decide to designate the use of your bequest for a specific purpose, such as our Low Cost Spay and Neuter, Rescue and Foster, or Medical Assist programs, or you can make a general gift that can be used for any of the HSAC's services. A gift can consist of almost anything - money, bank accounts, securities, works of art, motor vehicles, appliances, or real estate.

Please note that in any estate planning document, it is important to identify the HSAC by its proper legal name of "Humane Society of Alamance County, Inc.", along with our address: P.O. Box 5117, Burlington, NC 27216. Below are three common ways of making a bequest in a will, along with suggested language to be used.
